

Attendance Policy

This is a fictional workshop policy for Demo Institute of Technology.

Students must maintain at least 75 percent attendance in each course to be eligible for the end-semester examination.

Medical absence requests require a medical certificate submitted to the department within five working days of return.