

Internship Policy

This is a fictional workshop policy for Demo Institute of Technology.

Students must obtain department approval before beginning a credited internship.

An internship report and supervisor evaluation must be submitted within ten working days after completion.